

Andrea Lütthans

Programme Manager

Andrea Lütthans is responsible for the conception and coordination of management trainings and other qualification programmes for participants from the CIS countries (with a special focus on the Russian Federation) in Germany, the European Union and China.

Competencies

Qualification concepts, education marketing, intercultural communication, project management, non-profit management, quality management.

Career background

Andrea Lütthans completed her university studies as a grammar school teacher for Russian and English, and she holds a "Master of Non-profit administration" (MNA) degree which she acquired through additional university studies for working professionals.

Andrea Lütthans has international experience with the qualification of experts and managers as well as with project management. She has lived and worked in Great Britain, Ireland, Russia, Belarus and Georgia.

Languages

German, English, Russian, Italian.